The Route:

- 1 The walk starts from the park entrance on the corner of Bridgehouse Lane and Rawdon Road.
- 2 Enter the park passing the toilets, walk down the path passing the flowerbeds and down the steps in to the centre. There is a circle of bushes, go around and down to the children's play area. The play area is slightly to the right. To continue take the path on the far left and walk along past the bowling green to leave the park at the entrance on to Butt Lane.
- 3 Cross over Butt lane, which is cobbled, and walk straight on between the buildings towards the playing fields.
- 4 Facing the fields turn right and walk down, then turning left walk down past the entrance to the playing fields. Carry on a little further then turn left and walk up the path following the wall on your left.
- 5 At the top go through and take the path slightly to the right to walk along the footpath between the enclosed high stonewalls on to Mythholmes Lane.
- 6 Turn left and walk up towards the end of Mythholmes Lane, just before cross over and walk on passing Little Street and then cross over the junction of Changegate and walk past the Edinburgh Mill Shop. Continue on until reaching the public footpath sign on your right between the cottages.
- 7 Take this footpath walk through the houses and out passing the old churches and graveyards on the left. You will now have good views of the surrounding countryside to your right. Carry on until coming to the open field, turn left here and walk up and through the tarmac car park to the road opposite the pub.
- 8 Turn right and walk along West Lane passing nearly all the houses you will see a public footpath sign on the opposite side of the road.
- 9 Cross over and take this footpath through the fields marked ' to Haworth Church'.
- 10 Go through the gate and follow the path past the houses and allotments to Bronte Parsonage and shop.
- 11 Continue past the Parsonage down the cobbled lane to the Church. Just behind the church turn right and walk through the church yard going down the 4 steps then turn right to walk on and through the kissing gate.
- 12 Through the gate follow the path all the way on past the hen pens on the left and fields on the right, until you come to a junction of paths.
- 13 Take the left path into the wooded car park and then turn right to follow the WAY OUT signs down through the car park.
- 14 On exiting the car park continue to walk down the hill following the road round to the left and down on to Sun Street.
- 15 Turn left and walk along past the Old Hall you are now back at the start on Rawdon Road.

Points to note

- Do not confuse the markers on the enclosed map with any way marker symbols you may see placed along the actual walk. The numbered markers shown on the map are to give approximate location on the route with the numbered written instructions.
- Short section of the walk is up hill and sometimes it may be a little muddy on parts of the walk.

Places of interest

The walk passes through the park and the churchyard. Bronte Parsonage is also on route, although there is a charge to enter the museum. The walk has some wonderful scenery too.
